Graduate Research Assistant (ADHS MTI Research Fellowship)

Appalachian Regional Commission, Washington D.C.

Aug. 2022 – Present

- Updates the annual status report of the Appalachian Development Highway System (ADHS) by running financial reports from FHWA's FMIS5-P for ARC-funded projects and incorporating the data into 70 pages of text, figures, maps, and tables.
- Monitor monthly financial reports from FMIS for ARC-funded projects with the analysis of the data to identify trends, and actively collaborate with ARC budget staff to share insights and coordinate financial management efforts.
- Follow up with Local Access Road (LAR) projects in the EADHS portal for the LAR update function by the state DOTs, and monitor the status of the projects for close-out form and Basic Agency Monitoring Report (BAMR).

Undergraduate Thesis Researcher

Passenger Flow Forecast for Xi'an Metro Line 14, Chang'an University

Oct. 2020 – May. 2021

- Collected and cleaned daily passenger flow data for five existing Xi'an metro lines from official public sources using Python.
- Developed regression-based forecasting models for Line 14 and compared projected passenger flows with those of existing metro lines.

Examined the effects of COVID-19 on forecast results and system-level passenger flow patterns.

Transportation Statistic Analyst

City Transportation Research Center of Jinan, Shandong Province, China

Jul. 2019 – Aug. 2019

Helped finishing the Word and PowerPoint documents of introduction of city, painted the pictures of the road networks through TransCAD and Photoshop, and collected the GPS location data through Baidu API by using Python.
